

AB & BRI

hello

First off, we hope you know how special we think you are for allowing us the opportunity to share a little about our lives with you. We are thrilled to began this journey and we hope to be able to provide your child a beautiful life. Adoption is such a wonderful thing and we want you to know how brave we think you are for doing something so courageous. We can only imagine the weight of this decision and we respect you tremendously

After some difficulty with fertility we both felt it in our hearts that adoption was something we both felt very passionate about we both come from larger families and have both wanted to start one of our own for a very long time now. We have so much love to give and we cant wait to be able to share that with such a beautiful child.

Thank you,
Ab and Bri

We met in high school and we have been together ever since! From the very first moment we met we just clicked! One of our very first memories together we both attended our local high schools football game and instead of watching the game we just walked the stadium track and talked the entire time! We both knew in that moment something special was there and it has turned into such a wonderful life! We both have so much fun together and love to experience new adventures! We have been married for 7 years now and everyday we grow closer and stronger as a couple! we have both found our true soulmate and we are so grateful for our life together!

Our Love Story

Meet AB...

Im AB! Yes you read that correct, Just the first two letters of the alphabet. Its my nickname as my real name is kinda long (Anna Elizabeth) anyways, one thing you'll love about me is my humor! its very rare that I am serious and sarcasm is my second language! I am a Physical Therapist Assistant and have been for 8 years now! I love to help people, it's so rewarding to be able to see my patients become independent again! I enjoy laughing and having a good time but I am kinda shy at first! I love sports and have played most in my lifetime.

Soccer and football are probably my favorite. I am an FSU fan, and Minnesota Vikings fan! I enjoy being outside and exploring new places. A couple of facts about me I love Star Wars, and enjoy working out!

Meet Bri...

I'm Brianna, Bri, Bebe, Bria or B I really answer to any of those! I love life and want to find the good in everything. I enjoy being a social butterfly but I also enjoy the simple side of life by sitting outside reading a book or going for a walk. I've been a hairstylist for 7 years and have owned a Salon for 3! Before that I was a nanny and a cheerleading coach. A few facts about me: I love Disney and iced coffee is my weakness!

Here are some of the little people in our lives, Bri calls them all her mini besties! We are so blessed with two nieces and one nephew. We are also blessed with our closest friends children, who we love just like our own family! We go to birthday parties, sports events, play dates, school events, anything we can do to support them is our goal!

Our home

We moved into this house a couple of years ago after tragedy struck our community we were hit with a Hurricane and it completely destroyed our previous home. It was like a fresh start and new beginning for us and we have loved being able to start over and make this new place our forever home! We would love the opportunity to start our family here and raise them so close to our family and friends!

Our Support System

Thank you

We just want to let you know how grateful we are for considering us! And we are so excited for this new chapter and opportunity you would give us!
