Hello

*ONE OF THE
GREATEST TITLES
IN THE WORLD IS MOMMY, AND
THE WORLD IS GETTING TO BE ONE.*

My name is Sunrea. I have wanted to be a mother my whole life. I am so grateful for this chance to share a little about myself, as you make one of the most loving and courageous decisions for your child.

I've always loved kids. While I've enjoyed spending time with my nieces, nephews and god-children. I always wanted a child of my own. I was in high school volunteering at a local community center when adoption became a definite part of my plan.

About me

I work in finance at a Fortune 100 company. I live in the Florida panhandle. I have been with my employer 15yrs and I work from home. I have a Bachelors degree in Psychology and an Associate degree in Child welfare. I really enjoy spending time with my family and friends , reading and anything that allows me to be creative. I enjoy traveling. But, I'm not a huge fan of flying.

However, I brave the friendly skies once a year to take a birthday trip. The photos you see here were taken on my favorite two so far. One was to New York and the other was to Texas. The New York picture is my attempt to re-enact a scene from one of my favorite T.V. shows. Yes, I am that corny sometimes. I'm also kind, loving and want to be a mom more than anything in this world.

Meet My family

The first person you see is my mom. She is almost as excited as I am to welcome a new baby into the family. The next two pictures you see are my siblings . I am the youngest of five. Everyone is local except my oldest brother and they are all eager to be aunts and uncles. I've doted on their kids through the years and they are eager to return the love.

"A grandparent is a little bit parent, a little bit teacher, and a little bit best friend."

The other pictures are aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces and nephews . We are a large bunch that loves to have family get together . It doesn't have to be anything fancy. We just enjoying being with one another.

OUR FAMILY
A CIRCLE OF STRENGTH
AND LOVE
FOUNDED ON FAITH
JOINED BY LOVE
KEPT BY GOD
TOGETHER FOREVER

Dear daughter,

As I look into your eyes and hold you near
The purpose of life has never been more clear
I never knew love so completely unconditional
My commitment to you borders on devotional
To you the world I would gladly give
You bring immeasurable joy to the life I live
The reflection of self in your eyes I see
Demands I am the best woman I can be
I never want to be less than you deserve
To ensure your happiness I'd move heaven & earth
The peace I feel when you're in my arms
Let's me know this world can be more right than wrong
I dream for you in shades of love
White lights illumination from the heavens above
I never want you to know a moment's sadness
My wish is that your days are filled with endless happiness
But should your days meet with sorrows silence
I'll be there to guide you through the quiet
Should life ever place on you more than you feel you can bare
Reach for me and know I'll always be there
I'll chase away monsters real and imagined
I'll even go up against fire breathing dragons
I'll hold you close and calm your fears
I'll wipe away all of your tears
If the time comes when your heart is broken
I'll stand beside you until it's whole again
I pledge to you I will strive to be
The type of mother life demands you need
Strong, firm and understanding
Believing in you without being overbearing
On my shoulders you can always stand
It's because of you. I am a better woman
It's your presence that lifted me
To heights of self I didn't know I could reach
I love you more with each passing moment
The heart in my chest you now own it
The best life for you is what I now live
My special blessing
My most precious gift

Praying I meet you soon

Home is where the heart is

I purchased my house in May. It was so much fun decorating and making it into the home I want my child to grow up in. My favorite room is the nursery. It's the room that has my heart. It represents hope and faith that I will be blessed to be a mom. The house also has a fenced in back yard perfect for safe outside play.

Choose me!

“For this child I have prayed and the Lord has granted me the desires of my heart. “

1 Samuel 1:27

Being a mom is the one thing I've always wanted in life.

I always thought being a mom earlier in life was what was best for me. Now, I see God had a plan all along. I was discouraged as years passed and everyone was becoming a mom but me. I was devastated when a PCOS diagnoses meant I would have difficulty conceiving. Then covid came and I found myself single. I knew I wanted to adopt. But I wanted to be home with my child and wondered how I would do that as a single parent.

Just when it seemed like things were falling apart and I'd never be in a place to adopt. Everything started to shift. After being at my job 13 years. I got a promotion that allowed me to work remotely and I found the perfect house to make into a home.

Then I worried no one would choose a single parent . I realized I had to walk in faith, believing the right person would see my profile and feel in their heart I am the right choice.

If, that person is you.

You're the person I've prayed for every night. I prayed that you were being supported and that somehow you could feel I was here ready to love and nurture this baby with my entire heart. I prayed God's protection over you both and I prayed that when you saw my profile. It would feel calming , familiar and right.

My home, my arms and most importantly my heart are open and beyond ready to sit and stare in awe at little fingers and toes, get excited over every little smile or coo, late night bonding, talking everyone's ear off about everything the baby does and text blast the family pictures every 5 minutes. I would feel so honored and blessed to be chosen for such an amazing gift.

My Promise

This baby will never have a day that she isn't loved. I will never take for granted the courage, selflessness and love you've shown in choosing me. I will encourage, affirm and value this precious life entrusted to me. I will show her the power of faith and the importance of a relationship with God. I will tell her how I admire and am forever thankful for the this gift you have given to me. I will tell her how you gave me proof God answers prayers and miracles can happen.

Thank you
