HELLO!

Thank you for meeting me through this profile book!
My friends and family would describe me as a strong, respectful, and caring person who gives 100% in anything that I put my mind to. I am so thankful to have loyal loved ones who support my life dream of becoming a mother.

I have many friends who have adopted their children, some who even traveled all the way to China to adopt. They have been incredibly supportive and informative about the ins and outs of the adoption world, and it's only made me more excited to be on this path.

MARCIA

MY STORY

I grew up in Florida. My parents raised me to have an open mind, to be compassionate, and to be understanding of others. I always felt that my thoughts mattered and that I was loved. I think those traits and their support is why I choose to become a nurse!

Though my parents divorced when I was younger, they both remarried, and now I feel like I have two sets of parents. My biological parents are best friends, and we all have dinner together often with their spouses. They like to go fishing and shopping together, too. If selected, your child would have two sets of grandparents!

THINGS I LOVE TO DO

- Plan family get-togethers, like parties and holiday celebrations
- Do it yourself projects around my home. I am very hands-on!
- Go to the theater events, like plays, operas, and musicals
- Re-create fun recipes that I find on social media

MY VALUES

KINDNESS

I became a nurse to help people because I genuinely care. I grew up believing kindness is about treating others the way you want to be treated. I try to always be understanding and see a situation from someone else's perspective.

FUN FACT #1

I am bilingual and speak English and Spanish!

Exploring Hollywood Studios

I work as a Compliance Nurse from home! I audit other nurses to ensure that they are compliant with requirements. I enjoy working for a forward thinking, supportive company that realizes employees are their greatest asset. I work four days a week and have the flexibility to adjust my schedule. I will be taking time off once I adopt to bond with your child.

WHAT EXCITES ME MOST ABOUT BECOMING A PARENT

Often, I am told, “You will encounter the most breathtaking experience of your life becoming a new parent.” What excites me is the possibility of making my family complete, spending time and providing unconditional love to a child, and growing and nurturing a relationship with that child. I will provide a wonderful childhood full of warmth and love as I had.

MEET LUCKY!

Lucky is a New Zealand Huntaway, and I love his personality! He is gentle by nature, protective, and is so smart. He knows how to get his way, whether it's going on a spontaneous walk or wanting an additional snack. He is very kind and great with children.

MY HOME IN FLORIDA

The area I live in is a quiet, comfortable community nestled in the heart of a large city. I have lived in my home for many years. The local schools here are well rated and the high school is within walking distance. Also within walking distance is our neighborhood park that has many youth programs for football, baseball, lacrosse, and tennis. I walk there daily!

I enjoy the quaintness of my neighborhood but also the many offerings that my large city has to offer, like a zoo, science museum, gardens, and a large water park! Don't forget the beautiful beaches and walking trails!

MY FAMILY

All of my family live within a 15-to-30-minute radius of me. We see each other daily, whether that's in-person for dinner or through video chat. I am very close to my parents, and I am very blessed to have them.

I am also close to my cousins. As one of the older cousins, I have been able to cultivate a wonderful relationship with all of them. The youngest one and I have started a book club to inspire her to read more as she is only 9. The other oldest cousin who is 23 considers me to be his best friend, which I find that to be an honor.

RAISING A CHILD

I will raise your child in an open and loving environment. I want them to know that they can talk to me about anything and that I am there for them no matter what. My main goal as a parent is to give your child the tools they need to be a successful, happy, and independent person in this world. I will foster traits of kindness and respect so your child has a "I can do this!" attitude. I believe this positivity will radiate with them throughout life, including having a thirst for education.

MY FAVORITE TRADITIONS

- When a Marvel or DC movie comes out, my family will dress up and all watch the film together.
- Twice a year, we have a Disney day where my entire family, including extended members, go to the park
- Prior to Thanksgiving, we get together to make pasteles, a type of tamale.

THANK YOU!

My commitment as a new parent is to continue to learn and be open minded through your child's life. I will be there every step of their journey, whether it's guiding them, or sitting on the side lines to cheer them on. I will always put your child's needs before my own.

More than anything, I want you to know that I will love your child unconditionally and will raise them to be the best person that they can be. I promise to understand the deeply rooted love you will always have for your child and to cultivate an open relationship.

LOVE,
MARCIA
